

COUNT OF THE OMER

(Exodus 16:14-36 and Leviticus 23:15-16)

(see also Bikkurim to Shavuot on our webpage)

This period of fifty days is an opportunity to reflect on all YHVH has done for us in preparing ourselves for the task he has set before us this year. During these next fifty days, let's read through the narrative in the four Gospels of how Yeshua walked with talmidim before his final ascent. Then we reflect on the words Psalm 119 twice over, letting the psalmist help us find our place before YHVH, as God of the universe. Then, on the fiftieth day at the end of the Omer Count comes – Shavu'ot, a day set aside for praise and worship, as we once again celebrate both the receiving of God's Torah and our freedom in Yeshua HaMashiach, who gave us individually a portion of his Ruach HaKodesh.
