

THE COUNT OF THE OMER

Sh'mot (Exodus) 16:14-36 and Vayikra (Leviticus) 23:15-16)
(See also Bikkurim to Shavuot on our webpage)

The next fifty days are an opportunity to reflect on all YHVH has done for us by preparing us for the task he has set before us both now and in the future. During these next fifty days, let's read through the narrative in the four Gospels of how Yeshua walked with talmidim during the time between Bikkurim (which was the day he presented himself as the firstfruits from the dead following his resurrection on the previous Shabbat afternoon) until his final ascent into heaven.

We also reflect on the words Psalm 119 twice over, as we let the psalmist help us understand our place before YHVH, as the God of the universe. Then, on the fiftieth day at the end of the Omer Count we will once again observe – Shavu'ot as a Holy Convocation, a day set aside for praise and worship. We remember once again that it was on the day of Shavuot that YHVH spoke the Ten Words from the top of Mt. Horev and then in 30CE the Ruach HaKodesh came down upon the faithful talmidim of Yeshua in the Temple Court as confirmation of all Yeshua had said during his earthly ministry.

This year the Omer Count begins on the Wednesday 20 April and continues for 50 days until Wednesday 8 June, which will be the day of Shavuot.
